Your Name in Print.

—Mr. Lee Scarborough, of Sumter county, was in town last Sunday.

—Jos. H. Montgomery, Esq., of Sumter, was in town last Saturday.

—Mrs. M. Kalsky and her son Joe expect to leave this morning, to visit the Augusta Exposition.

—Mr. A. W. Knight, of Bennettsville, has accepted a position in the Texas office, and is now "sticking 'em up" on this paper.

—Mr. Thos. Jones, register of deeds of Knoxville, Tenn., and formerly a resident of this county, is visiting Mr. Y. N. Butler.

—Rev. H. M. Mood, Rev. A. Nettles, and Mr. J. W. McLeod left here yesterday morning, to attend the South Carolina Conference which convenes to-day in Wimsboro.

The recent heavy rains have done much damage to the crops in the Santee section.

Mr. D. L. McKay White was stricken with paralysis last Monday, but we hear he is improving.

Mr. G. Alexander has just received at his jewelry store a lot of musical instruments. For sale cheap.

The farmers will have their regular monthly meeting next Saturday. The alliance matter will be fully discussed at that meeting.

Mr. Charley W. Brown, of Panola, and Miss Minnie Dean, one of our most beautiful young ladies, are to be married to-day.

The Knights of Pythias meet to-morrow night. All the furniture has come, and it is expected that there will be several initiations.

The Legislature met yesterday. Senator J. F. Rhame is in his place, as also, we presume, are Representatives Tindal and Plowden.

That little billet doux is not meant to give offence, and no gentleman we hope will get offended. It means simply that we want the money.

South Carolina has by large odds the best exhibition at the Augusta Exposition, and has been awarded the diploma for the best State exhibit.

Mr. Dudley E. Hodge, of Oakland, who for some time has been in feeble health, was prostrated last Sunday by a stroke of paralysis, and is dangerously ill.

Capt. A. Levi will receive the appointment of engrossing clerk in the Legislature, and consequently will be in Columbia during the sitting of last body.

A little negro boy, about eight years old, living on Mr. Dudley Hodge's place, near Oakland, fell off a dining table last Friday, and broke his neck, killing him instantly.

During court week last month a gentleman paid Mr. M. C. Galluchat $1.50 subscription to the Times. He has forgotten who the gentleman was, and requests that he report his name to this office.

The jail is said to be sadly in need of a few dollars of repairs. The poor prisoners suffer from the cold wind blowing in at broken panes of glass. Either the county commissioners should repair the jail, or a subscription paper should be circulated for this purpose. It is sinful to make these prisoners suffer thus.

It is estimated that ten thousand persons visited Charleston last week. 247 tickets were sold from Manning; 250 from Sumter. Other depots in Clarendon and Sumter, of course, sold their share, and we safely say that these two counties sent seven or eight hundred visitors to Charleston last week. Eighty-nine tickets were sold to the Columbia Fair week before last.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Mr. John Moran to be seen in this issue. He keeps one of the largest and best assorted stocks of goods to be found in the city of Sumter, and when the people of Clarendon go there to sell their cotton or to make purchases they will do well by calling on John Moran, Main St., Sumter, S. C.

We hear that the store of S. E. Strange & Co., of Salem, which was kept by our young friend Eddie Strange, of Wilson's, was destroyed by fire last Monday night. There was no insurance, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The stock was estimated to be worth about $1,700, the building $375. The building was the store house formerly owned by J. H. McFaddin. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.

To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C. 181 Pearl st., N. Y.

Fragments from Foreston.

FORESTON, Nov. 27.—Rah! for Foreston! Why? Because she furnished about twenty-five visitors to the Charleston Gaia, and while she put in the visitors she was not slow in putting in something to feed them, having contributed no less than seven nice beehives, besides pork, chickens, and eggs innumerable.

All those who attended from here express themselves as highly pleased with the sights, indeed I might give several funny stories from some of those whose first trip it was, but forbear.

While we look with pleasure on our visit to the city by the sea, and upon the goodness and mercy which ever crowns our days, yet in the midst of pleasure comes sorrow. Mr. Porter, our depot agent, who has been here as long as any of us, and whose heart has been entwined around ours, has been relieved, and must leave us. His place has been filled by a Mr. Hall, of Kingstree, S. C., a brother of the agent at your place. Mr. P. leaves to-morrow for Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. O. F. Goodwin, formerly of this town, but now of Charlotte Harbor, Fla., has been here for several days, closing up his business. He sold his place, four miles from here, to Mr. W. P. Roberts.

Rah! for Foreston. Our new agent at the depot received by to-day's freight two game cocks and a fiddle. Music.

Panola News.

PANOLA, S. C., Nov. 26, 1888.

MR. EDITOR: That postal—thank you kindly; it was a happy reminder. I would feel better if I had done better. The review of the year is not very comforting to me, and it ought not to be. If I had been more diligent and faithful to duty the result would have been different. There is a shortage all around this year. Like old Cudjo, the corn is short, the potatoes is short, but "de sun broke tru de cloud an gin we something once mo." So you see there is room for grunting where there is so little prosperity belonging to my charge. The Lord only knows who is to blame. One thing I do know, he will measure responsibility with an even hand.

Your editorial pathway is rugged, pestered with thorns. It is so I suppose with all editors. At times they are as snappish as minks, constantly dunning delinquent subscribers. Why do this? Do you not help to give a free and gratuitous literature? The last visit I paid Manning, I saw an editor hunting up locals, his face wore frowns of toil. Oh how I longed to edit his paper, so much to write about. Manning was so full of good and pretty things. I had great anxiety to be an editor, to tell the county folks what I saw. It was gala week, Manning was in her glory, with a strain of magnificent music marshaling her beautiful streets; but I will hush as that part of the program belongs to your local. It was gala week, therefore most if not all of the Court House hunkedoreys were on the breeze, I only had the pleasure to see your popular sheriff.

Times are so monotonous we are slow to believe Harrison has been elected president. As this is the case we will resume the even tenor of our way, and take our place high up on the roll among your contributors. "Hew to the line, let the chips fall as they may." Jack's Creek has been so overworked from the incessant rains we could not pass over. We had no Moses to lead us, a pillar of cloud by day, but no pillar of fire by night, hence we have kept near Rosin Hill where you can at all times enjoy a matchless treat. Here life blooms ever and anon. The gist of the moral, your humorist writer, "Occasional" (bachelor as he is), whose flow of words (can only be equaled by a beautiful quadrille).

At Rosin Hill the Entwistle Railroad passes. Farewell Friend Brockton; good-bye Panola; we are on the slide. The only comforting hand we can extend to you will be to move to the R. R. Let it not be said, your sorrow as one who has no hope, and may your destiny miss the mark of a Sumterton friend who having sold out his mules now has to buy more to move to the Railroad.

A recent visit to Vance's gave me an opportunity to look at the wrecked bridge. Vance's is a small but growing town on the Entwistle & Ellmore Road. At this junction the road from Sumter will connect. Several months must elapse before the bridge can be made available. The bridge disaster was a serious and fearful loss to the company, involving the necessary addition of an expenditure of $15,000 or $16,000 to replace the damage. Mr. Pregal is hard at work with a double force of hands taking down the ruins, dredging the channel in removing its wreck. The trains run daily from the junction to the river, which is one mile and a half. This is a smooth, level road, and goes to show the rapid stride which must soon span the river and connect Orangeburg and Clarendon.

Some months ago while canvassing the Deep Creek section I made a jocular remark that if elected to the office of county commissioner I would use my influence to give to the people of that locality a public road from Jordan to Foreston. I have received several letters reminding me of my promise. My traveling companion, a two hundred pounder, felt the weight of the argument. He would tighten on me at the job of every root. I have wondered since if he has forgotten the ride from Foreston to Jordan. I trow not, as his general life will never fade from the memory of the writer.

Candidates make many promises and meet serious difficulties. It was specially so in the personage of our sheriff-elect, where individuals took brush in hand to guard the polls to keep the people from voting for him.

Our little city is all in a bustle, a hog killing time. There is a perfect carnival in the sausage and pudding line. When this killing is to stop and the end come we know not.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE? Read the following:—Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Dinkins & Co's Drug Store.

PIMPLES, SORES, ACHES AND PAINS.

When a hundred bottles of sarsaparilla or other pretensions specifics fail to eradicate in-born scrofula or contagious blood poison, remember that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) has gained many thousand victories, in as many seemingly incurable instances. Send to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for "Book of Wonders," and be convinced. It is the only TRUE BLOOD PURIFIER.

G. W. Messer, Howell's X Roads, Ga., writes: "I was afflicted nine years with sores. All the medicine I could take did me no good. I then tried B. B. B., and 8 bottles cured me sound."

Mrs. S. M. Wilson, Round Mountain, Texas, writes: "A lady friend of mine was troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck. She took three bottles of B. B. B., and her skin got soft and smooth, pimples disappeared, and her health improved greatly."

Jas. L. Bosworth, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "Some years ago I contracted blood poison. I had no appetite, my digestion was ruined, rheumatism drew up my limbs so I could hardly walk, my throat was cancerized five times. Hot Springs gave me no benefit, and my life was one of torture until I gave B. B. B. a trial, and surprising as it may seem, the use of five bottles cured me."

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.
